

HOPSCOTCH

A COLLECTION OF THE BEST

The Menu

We're cocktail bartenders for several reasons. We like making drinks, and we love talking to people. Fortunately for us, this has been holding pretty strong for us so far.

Some like ice cream, some like tea, some like pudding, some like soup. Everyone has their own preferences and perceptions, we can't promise we can please everyone. So if you have any special requests or information that will help us arrive at a tippie you enjoy, do let us know, and we will be happy to oblige.

We had a good run of three different menus so far, and tonight we present our final menu at Red Dot Traffic Building to you; an amalgamation of the favorites from each edition, and a handful from around. In order to help you find a right fit, the ingredients in each drink have been listed, a guide to the different elements and taste profile of the drinks have also been provided.

And if anything on the menu doesn't fit your palate, or you simply want something different, let us know, and we shall pamper you with a bespoke cocktail.

Hopscotch

Here we stand on the precipice of a fresh batch of cocktail bars. Cocktail mania has indeed found its way into our pumping hearts, and we find ourselves running yet another bar.

We call this place Hopscotch, and for a reason. In the past, playing Hopscotch was a traditional game enjoyed by kids. Hopscotch aims to bring your back to that nostalgic frame, worry-free and are truly enjoying.

We also call Hopscotch home. After a long day at work, there's no place better than home. To us, the idea of home is to have sense of familiarity, and comfort in our own individuality. Some of us even nicknamed it the black hole where we just find ourselves pulled into whenever we needed a place to go.

Tonight, you are a guest in our home. We love having guests over and will try our best to make you feel at home.

END NOTE

We had a good run so far, an amazing 2 years of enjoyment, drinks and good company. The team at Hopscotch is deeply thankful and appreciative for the constant support so far. It is you, our guests, who have provided us the avenue to improve, to innovate, and to learn from our mistakes.

Unfortunately, our time at Red Dot is almost up. Our lease at Hopscotch ends early in December and its soon time to bid goodbye to this clandestine courtyard. Hopscotch will not be gone though.

Hopscotch is set to move to another awesome location close by, where we will be bringing you another fresh wave of creative cocktails and nights of great fun. We are also extending our range of offerings to include lunch and dinner, and maybe a takeout.

These coming months will definitely be filled with exciting updates. So, do follow us on our social media channels to find out more!
